

Prior Learning (What we already know?):

Discuss the opportunities that school offers and how to embrace them.

Key Questions:

- What is Education?
- How do we work together in the classroom?
- Why do we need to work hard?
- Why is learning important?

Key Facts:

- Every child has the right to an Education.
- Education provides interaction and stimulation for children.
- Every child has a responsibility to work hard.
- Learning is important in life so that we know how to behave and how to do things in life.

New Learning:

- Children should be taught to:
1. Appreciate early interactions and stimulation.
  2. Describe preschool/nursery/school and associated experiences.
  3. Be able to describe working together in the classroom.
  4. Understand their right to an education.
  5. Understand their responsibility to work hard.
  6. To understand why learning is important in life.

Key Resources:

- <https://www.buckdenhistory.co.uk/school-history>
- Google Earth
- Artefacts in Education past and present.

New Skills:

1. To be able to demonstrate ability for sharing and for playing together.
2. To have the ability to respond and self-regulation.
3. To be able to Communicate – orally and through art.
4. To developing fine and gross motor skills.
5. To show open and expressive communication and sensitivity to others.
6. To show readiness for school and be able observe school rules.
7. To be able be able participate in play activities and solve problems encountered in play.
8. To appreciate access to education and to have empathy with children who do not have access to schooling.
9. To show appreciation and respect for diversity.

Vocabulary:

Education, learning, learning experiences, sharing, self-regulation, communication, empathy, appreciation, diversity.

Can I do this?

- I can make friends and play with them.
- I can talk about my experiences in preschool, nursery and school.
- I can talk about what ‘education’ is.
- I can talk about how to work with others in the classroom.
- I understand that I have a right to an education.
- I understand why it is important to work hard.
- I understand why learning is important in life.